Section 1: Statement of Need

Need:

The philosophy of Laramie County continues to be to provide early intervention in as least a restrictive setting as possible for juvenile offenders. The majority of juveniles in Laramie County continue to be cited into the Municipal Court In Laramie County. The single point of entry process was implemented in July of 2009 and the majority of cases continue to be referred to the Municipal Court for handling.

The following is a statistical breakdown of the juvenile cases filed in Municipal Court from January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2009.

1062 juvenile citations were issued
